The World for Sale.

The World for Sale!—Hang out the sign;
Call every traveller here to me;
Who'll buy this brave estate of mine,
And set me from earth's bondage free?—
'Tis going!—yes, I mean to fling
This bauble from my soul away;
I'll sell it, whatsoe'er it bring;
The World at auction here to-day!

It is a glorious thing to see,—
Ah, it has cheated me sore!
It is not what it seems to be,
For Sale! It shall be mine no more.
Come, turn it o'er and view it well;—
I would not have you purchase dear;
'Tis glory! GOING!—I must sell!
Who bids?—Who'll buy the splendid Tear?

Here's WEALTH in glittering heaps of gold;
Who bids?—But let me tell you fair,
A baser lot was never sold;
Who'll buy the heavenly care?
And here spread out in wide domain,
A goodly landscape all may trace;
Hail, cottage, tree, field, hill and plain,
Who'll buy himself a burial place!

Here's LOVE, the dreamy potent spell
That beauty flings around her heart;
I know its power, alas! too well;
'Tis going,—Love and I must part!
Must part?—What can I more with Love!
All o'er the enchanter's reign;
Who'll buy the plumeless, dying dove,
An hour of bliss,—an age of pain!

And FRIENDSHIP,—rarest gem of earth,—
(Who e'er hath found the jewel his!)
Frail, fickle, false, and little worth,—
'Tis going! GOING!—Hear the call:
Once, twice, and THRICE!—'tis very low!
'Twas once my hope, my stay, my all,—
But now the broken staff must go!

FAME, hold the brilliant meteor high;
How dazzling every gilded name!
Ye millions, now's the time to buy!
How much for Fame?—How much for Fame?
Hear how it thundered!—Would you stand
On high Olympus, far renown'd,—
Now purchase, and a world command!—
And be with a world's curses crown'd!

Sweet star of HOPE! with ray to shine
In every sad foreboding breast,
Save this desponding one of mine,—
Who bids for man's last friend and best!
Ah! wert not mine a bankrupt life,
This treasure should my soul sustain;
But hope and I are now at strife,
Nor ever may unite again.

And SONG! For sale my tuneless lute;
Sweet solace, mine no more to hold;
The chords that charm my soul are mute,
I cannot wake the notes of old!
Or e'en were mine a wizard shell,
Could chain a world in rapture high;
Yet now a sad farewell!—farewell!
Must on its last faint echoes die.

Ambition, fashion, show and pride,—
I part from all forever now;
Grief, in an overwhelming tide,
Has taught my haughty heart to bow.
Poor heart! distracted, ah, so long,—
And still its aching throb to bear;
How broken, that was once so strong!
How heavy, once so free from care!

No more for me life's fitful dream;—
Bright vision, vanishing away!
My bark requires a deeper stream;
My sinking soul a surer stay.
By death, stern sheriff! all bereft,
I weep, yet humbly kiss the rod;
The best of all I still have left,—
MY FAITH, my BIBLE, and my GOD.

THE NATIONAL UNION BUSINESS COLLEGE
WASHINGTON. D. C.

Offers superior advantages for a thorough Business Education.

The course of instruction embraces Commission, Importing, Jobbing, Retailing, Bank and other Bookkeeping, Commercial Law, Arithmetic, Correspondence, Spencerian Penmanship and Business Practice.

PENMANSHIP is taught by Henry C. Spencer, the leading author of this system, and celebrated as the Editor of the "Spencerian Key to Practical Penmanship," adopted by nearly all first class Colleges as the standard of criticism. Unusual facilities are here presented for acquiring this valuable art.

The system of "BUSINESS PRACTICE," originated and successfully taught by the Proprietor, receives his special attention. This is the most valuable part of the course. Here the student applies his theoretical knowledge. He buys and sells representative mdse, makes out notes, drafts, invoices, &c., deposits College money in the Collegiate Bank, and checks it out as his business requires. Becoming, in turn, Retailer, Wholesale, Forwarder, Banker, he soon acquires a knowledge of business forms, learns to compose and condense the history of every transaction and thinks for himself. He is thus prepared for actual business.

Full scholarship, good for review at any time, with Life Membership in this Union of Colleges extending to the principal cities, only $45. Books and stationery extra.

For circulars giving full information, for specimens of Penmanship, of the College currency and merchandise.

VALUABLE REAL ESTATE,

LOCATED IN AND ADJOINING THE TOWN OF WARRENTON, N. C.

FOR SALE.

The Warrenton Female College is now offered for sale, on reasonable terms. This College has been in successful operation, for over twelve years, and, during that time, it has earned a reputation as an Institution of learning, second to none in N. C.

The location is such as to warrant a full attendance of pupils, being very accessible from any point, especially the Eastern portions of N. C. and Va.

The Committee, who have been empowered to make sale of this property, deem it unnecessary to say more of this Institution as its character for a high grade of scholarship, and the elevated standard of morals inculcated, under the eye and supervision of its late President, E. E. Parham, is already well known.

The society in which this College is located is known to be equal to any in the South.

There is now a sufficiency of Buildings and other Conveniences attached to this Real Estate, to conduct a large and flourishing school. The premises contain about SIXTY ACRES of Land a material portion of which is within the Corporation. This, with all or a part of the furniture, &c., belonging to the same, can be purchased with the land and buildings. This property will be offered privately for sale until Wednesday the 3rd day October next, and, if not then sold, will be on that day sold, at public auction to the highest bidder.

The Committee are fully authorized to sell, and would say that a rare chance is offered to any party wishing to purchase such property, as time sufficient, if required, will be given. Possession given immediately.

Any person or party wishing to examine the property will be shown it by E. E Parham, the present occupant, or by any one or more of the Committee.

PROSPECTUS.

This company owns by warranty title nearly fourteen thousand acres of mineral lands, situated in the counties of Chatham, Moore, Rockingham and Stokes, on the waters of Deep and Dan Rivers, in North Carolinia, which abound in plentiful deposits of coal, copper, iron, salt, and, there is every reason to believe from general and surface indications, petroleum or coal oil.

The services of two practical and efficient men, experienced in boring for oil, and stimulated by a long course of success in Venango county, Pennsylvania, were secured by the company several months since and they are now on the lands, with the requisite force, tools, steam engine and machinery, boring a well with very flattering prospects of success. The organization of this company effected some time since has now been perfected in legal form, by act of incorporation, with a capital of $500,000, divided into 100,000 shares of $5 each.

By reference to the valuable and laborious Reports of Prof. Emmons, State Geologist, and Commodore Wilkes, U. S. Navy, every one interested will be enabled to judge of the value of the large area of territory secured by the North Carolina Petroleum and Mining Co.

It is well known that a superior article of bituminous coal is now being mined in the Deep river coal region, where a portion of the lands are situated, and this company owns property known to be equal if not superior to any on which shafts have been sunk. Copper, iron and salt also abound, and the attention of capitalists has already been directed to this section on account of its value for the above minerals.

Below are given a few extracts from the journals showing that there is no good reason why there should not be as large quantities of oil in the "Old North State" as in other States.

Oil has been struck in Overton county, Tennessee, on the north line of that State, about midway from its eastern border, eighteen miles from the Cumberland mountains.—Christian (Richmond) Observer.

OIL WELLS IN WEST VIRGINIA.—The Parkersburg Times gives an astonishing statement of the yield of wells in the region thereabout, consisting of Wood, Wirt, Ritchie and other counties, viz.: Burning Springs, 2,500 barrels per day; White Oak, 1,500; Lick Run, 300; Horse Neck, 150; and of the several wells on Hughes river, 6,000 barrels per day. The quality is said to be remarkably fine. The Times considers the oil of West Virginia the best yet discovered.

THE OIL EXCITEMENT IN ILLINOIS.—The oil excitement in Clark county is still high. Some eight or ten derricks are up and at work. The deepest well is only 325 feet, with a fair yield of oil. Some of the other wells have struck oil and gas at from 70 to 100 feet.—Much time and money will be spent this summer in the thorough development of the oil resources of Clark county. Men of capital and experience seem confident that oil will be found in large quantities, and are willing to test their faith by a free expenditure in developing the lands. The first company who bored on the land of Hon. T. B. Young, are now engaged in trying to raise the anger which was lost last fall. The Eastern Illinois Company will begin work in a few days twelve miles southwest of the first well. The prospect in that locality is good.—Chicago Tribune.

It is known that after a few months boring in the vicinity of Lynchburg, a large vein of oil was struck and a productive well is now in successful operation. This is on the same line with, and about 80 miles from, the company's first well on Dan River, where the indications both general and particular are similar.

In order to have sufficient means to develop this valuable property in such a manner as to insure success, the Directors have authorized 10,000 shares of the capital stock to be sold to raise a working capital, and subscriptions for that number or any part thereof will be received.

An uncommonly favorable opportunity for investment is thus afforded, as those who choose to buy stock under this offer will have the advantage of an equal footing with the original corporators in an enterprise which, after the example of the immense profits realized in those of a similar character in other States, though in many respects on less favorable conditions than this, (compare the extent, cheapness and fee simple title of the basis of operations here offered) gives reasonable assurance of the most lucrative results. In many instances in sections of less favorable localities, shares have advanced in a few days from $2 or $5 to $20 and even $50, and poor men who made small investments realized fortunes.

Further information may be had at the office of the company, one door north of the Court House, Greensboro, N. C., where books of subscription are now open.

By order of the Directors.

A. G. BRENIZER, Secretary.

Mr. Holden vs. Mr. Davis.

Mr. Holden attempts to prove his charge against Mr. Davis, that he "threatened in 1864 to send troops into this State, to shoot and kill our people and desolate the State," by producing a letter from Mr. Davis to Gov. Vance.—The letter proves two things, but does not prove Mr. Holden's assertion. It proves that even in 1864, the best friend and protector Mr. Holden and the peace agitators had was Zebulon B. Vance, whom they have abused and villified ever since, and even wanted hung! It proves, secondly, that Mr. Davis was extremely anxious to preserve the State from the ravages of civil war, by adopting such measures, in advance, as would effectually prevent the evils which it is falsely said he threatened. Read the extract, fellow-citizens, and see how utterly Mr. Holden perverts the meaning of a letter to suit his purpose. The letter is dated January 8, 1864:

"I fear much, from the tenor of the news I receive from North Carolina, that an attempt will be made by some bad men to inaugurate movements which must be considered as equivalent to aid and comfort to the enemy, and which all patriots should combine to put down, at any cost. You may count on my aid in every effort to spare your State the scenes of civil warfare, which will devastate its homes, if the designs of these traitors be suffered to make head. I know that you will place yourself in your legitimate position in the lead of those who will not suffer the name of the Old North State to be blackened by such a stain. Will you pardon me for suggesting that my only source of disquietude on the subject arises from the fear that you will delay too long the action which now appears inevitable; and that by an over-earnest desire to reclaim by conciliation men whom you believe to be sound at heart, but whose loyalty is more than suspected elsewhere, you will permit them to gather such strength as to require more violent measures than are now needed. With your influence and position, the promoters of the unfounded discontents now prevalent in your State would be put down without the use of physical force, if you would abandon a policy of conciliation, and set them at defiance. In this course, frankly and firmly pursued, you would rally around you all that is best and noblest in your State, and your triumph would be bloodless. If the contrary policy be adopted, I much fear you will be driven to the use of force to repress treason. In either event, however, be assured that you will have my cordial concurrence and assistance in maintaining with you the honor, dignity and fair name of your State, and in your efforts to crush treason, whether incipient, as I believe it now to be, or more matured, as I believe, if not now firmly met, it will in our future inevitably become."

UNITED, once more, after an honest difference of opinion, the best friends and most cordial co-workers, to-day, in our midst, are the consistent war men and the consistent Union men. They are joined together not only by mutual charity and forgiveness, but by the one great purpose which should warm the hearts and nerve the energies of good citizens everywhere,—that of restoring the country to its former tranquility, to its former prosperity, and to its former unity and peace. With us of North Carolina, as in Tennessee, (as described by an influential journal of that State,) the only frowns and scowls that are perceptible come from those who fell by the way—newly made apostles of the Union—men who, knowing that they sacrificed their faith in the one instance, and believing there is no redemption for themselves in the good opinion of the comrades they abandoned—feel it necessary to hold aloof and to hedge themselves by proscription in lieu of reconciliation.

THERE is a consistency and uniformity in the infamy of the Radical party which is very extraordinary. If their Congressmen are disgracing and demoralizing the nation at home, their foreign ministers are equally industrious in dishonoring their country by their disreputable conduct abroad. KILPATRICK has outraged the not particularly sensitive morality of the Chilians by attempting to force a notoriously abandoned woman in good society.

We now have, piping hot from Venezuela, several charges against the Radical Minister resident in that country. The American merchants resident at the capital of Venezuela have preferred charges against E. D. CULVER, the American Minister, among which we find the following:

"That he rents a small house in Caraccas, using the front room as his bed-room, reception-room and the Bureau of the Legation, and sub-letting all the rest of the house to negroes and persons of bad repute."

THOSE Southern Radicals who hint that the States of the South will be remanded to a Provisional or Provincial condition, must base their augury upon an impeachment and removal of the President. From the exultant manner in which they insinuate that a "worse thing is to befall us," they must be in favor of such an impeachment. President Johnson will never undo his work. The honest masses of the country will never allow it any one else to undo it.

Maj. Gen. Ruger.

We have heard it intimated, that, after the completion of the investigations into the charges against Bureau officers, by the Military Court here, Maj. Gen. Ruger will leave this Department and this city. Presuming the rumor to be correct, we deem it a matter of sheer justice to that officer to say, that we have heard but one opinion expressed by those of our citizens who have formed his acquaintance, and that is, that no Federal officer has been among us, who has borne himself better, as a gentleman and officer, than Gen. Ruger. His intercourse with our citizens has been frank, polite and gentlemanly. Some of his decisions have been esteemed, perhaps, by some, harsh and incorrect, but no one, we believe, charges him with a purpose to do wrong or to be domineering or tyrannical. His intercourse with the civil authorities has at all times been dignified, respectful and officer-like, and he will leave with the esteem of those who have had most intercourse with him.

We regret that we do not know him personally. Early after his arrival, being prepossessed in his favor from his personal appearance, we sought an interview with him on two occasions, but one of his subordinates, whose manner indicated to us that he intended to have the General under his own keeping, gave us to understand that he could not be seen. Hence we called no more. And this may account to the General for the reserve and indifference manifested by many, whose acquaintance he would have formed, to his advantage and the advantage of the service.

Freedman's Bureau.

The comprehensive report on the operations of the Freedmen's Bureau, by Generals STEEDMAN and FULLERTON, extracts from which we print this morning, should be attentively examined alike by those who deprecate profuse squandering of the public money, and by all who take a philantrophic interest in the negro race. It appears from this report that many of the officers, agents, and employees of the Freedmen's Bureau are a scandalous set of knaves. Cases are described in the report, of officers of the Bureau who collected heavy fines and accounted for only a small fraction of them, and trumped up lame excuses for the embezzlement after the fraud was discovered; other cases of clergymen attached to the Bureau driving a dishonest and oppressive business in marriage-fees; of slave-pens kept by other officers from which freedmen were sold to planters for five dollars a head; of self-convicted falsehood on the part of others in accounts of maltreatment of freedmen by planters; and a great catalogue of other iniquities which the reader will find set forth with every mark of authenticity in the report.

The Great Convention.

It is on all hands agreed that no body of men so conservative, representing all the States of the Union, has ever assembled as that which will convene in Philadelphia to-morrow. With exceptions too trifling for notice, the men and the resolutions are all that could be desired.—Ohio sends such men as Ewing and Campbell. Massachusetts sends Curtis and Winthrop.—Pennsylvania sends several of her Ex-Governors. Maryland sends Reverdy Johnson, Montgomery Blair and Gov. Swann. Virginia sends Wm. C. Rives and North Carolina William A. Graham at the head of their respective delegations.—South Carolina sends Govs. Orr and Perry, and Alabama ex-Senator Fitzpatrick, Jno. Forsythe, and others. Georgia sends Hon. A. H. Stephens and Herschel V. Johnson, and Senator Guthrie heads the list from Kentucky.

THE MILITARY COURT.—This Court has closed the investigation of the charges against the officers of the Freedmen's Bureau, except in the case of Maj. Wickersham. The Court has been presided over by Maj. Gen. Palmer, we learn,—a prominent lawyer of Illinois, who was at one time associated with the late President Lincoln. Gen. Palmer's deportment has made a favorable impression on our citizens who have formed his acquaintance. The decision of the Court in either case has not been made known. The impression is that Gen. Whittlesey has been acquitted of the charges alleged against him.—The community have felt little or no interest in these investigations. They would much prefer that all the officers of the Bureau would be permitted quietly to go home, than to have any or all of them convicted of any delinquency.—It some well known, judicious citizen, of each County in the State, were appointed by the Government to look after the interests of the blacks, provide for the really suffering and needy, give them counsel, and see that they had the protection of the law, the real and proper objects of the government, in regard to the freedmen, would be much better carried out; and in six months from this day, the general government might safely turn them over entirely to the guardianship of the State government and the law. For years, however, many of the poor blacks, the aged, the infirm, and the orphaned children, will need pecuniary help. There is no justice, nor is it honorable, to tax the now poor and ruined white people of the South, to support the pauper black population, who have been forcibly wrested from their lawful owners by the power of the sword, in direct violation of the genius and principles of the Government. Yet they should be provided for by the Northern people, who have been made rich by the negro labor of the South, while their old owners have been made poorer.

NORTH CAROLINA PRESBYTERIAN.—This is an admirable Presbyterian Church paper, published at Fayetteville, and edited by B. Fuller, Esq. We fear the poor mail facilities yet extended to that region seriously interfere with the circulation of the Presbyterian. Those of the denomination, more accessible to it, should therefore do much to sustain it. It is a necessity to North Carolina Presbyterians, which they cannot well dispense with.

The Freedmen's Bureau a Nuisance.

Official Report of Generals Steadman and Fullerton,—The Bureau Rotten Throughout and a Curse to Both Whites and Negroes.

The Commissioners, Major General Steadman and Brigadier General Fullerton, appointed by the War Department to investigate the condition and working of the Freedmen's Bureau, made, on Thursday, the final report of their labors. The report is long and very interesting, giving a full account of the inspections made in the States of Georgia, Alabama, Mississippi, Louisana and Texas. We give some condensed extracts from the report:

GEORGIA.

The Bureau in Georgia, under the management of the present able and efficient assistant commissioner, Brevet Major General Tilson, has been honestly administered, and has accomplished all the good of which the system is capable. It has been assisted by the Governor, by the judges of the Supreme Court, by the civil authorities, and to some extent by the citizens. The amended laws of Georgia are fully as liberal as those of any Northern State, and place the negro in all respects on a perfect equality with the white man as to his civil ights.

ALABAMA.

In this State Major General Wager Swayne, the assistant commissioner, has pursued a discreet and enlightened policy in administering the affairs of the bureau, laboring on all occasions to secure the co-operation of the civil authorities and to obtain from the judicial machinery of the State a recognition of the rights essential to the security and well being of the freed people. This policy of General Swayne has produced a much more kindly feeling towards the bureau than exists where its agents have assumed to exercise judicial powers.

Though the administration at headquarters has been satisfactory, subordinate agents have been guilty of considerable irregularities. The names of several engaged in planting are given.

MISSISSIPPI—HEAVY STEALING.

The control of the freedmen's affairs in this State is in the hands of Major General Wood.—With the exception of some localities, the negroes are working industriously, and as a rule are kindly treated and doing well. In this, as in others we have visited, the officers of the bureau formerly imposed and collected fines, and many kept no records. We found a marked instance of this kind at Grenada, where a former agent of the bureau, Chaplain Livermore, did a thriving business in the way of collecting fines, selling rations and Goverment horses and mules. This officer seems not only to have collected fines ranging from fifty cents to five dollars, from the freedmen for marrying them, but also attempted to exact fees from resident white ministers for giving them permission to marry freedmen.

In cases where the negroes were unable to pay the sum demanded of them for approving their contracts or marrying them, the chaplain levied on their personal property, in one case seizing a negro's empty wallet and jack knife for a balance of fifty cents. This close driving is probably to be accounted for by the fact that Chaplain Livermore openly expressed his intention to return to Illinois with ten thousand dollars in his pocket. After he had been removed from his post offered a military officer fifty dollars for his influence to retain him in his position. Chaplain Livermore left no official papers behind to show the disposition he had made of the funds received. A large amount of money was also collected by the first two agents at Columbus in the shape of fees and fines, and so far as we could learn no account was ever rendered of it. This class of officers have lately been mustered out, or have disappeared. Under the present administration the agents exercise no judicial powers.

LOUISIANA—WHOLESALE PLUNDERING.

The bureau in this department is more in need of retrenchment and reform than in any other State we have visited. More money has been collected, and more money has been squandered in Louisiana than in any other three Southern States. The evpenses of the bureau, as accounted for for the fiscal year ending the 1st of June, 1866, were over three hundred thousand dollars. To meet this expenditure there were collected in taxes and rents the following amounts:

For school purposes	$96,387 36
From rents	92,431 90
From poll tax	40,956 11
From Corps d' Afrique tax	23,000 00
From fines	673 10
Total	$523,448 47

Leaving a deficit of $60,057 33 to be paid out of the national treasury. These expenses are in addition to the transportation, rations and quartermaster's supplies furnished by the government. It is difficult to determinate to what use the vast amount of property held by the bureau has been applied. At the very lowest estimate, the property taken of as confiscated or abandoned amounted in value to ten millions of dollars, and the rents returned as above mentioned are less than one per cent. on the entire value.

The expenditures of the bureau, under the present administration, for agents, civilian clerks and employees about its headquarters alone, amount to not less than $40,236 a year, exclusive of the pay of staff officers and orderlies in the military service.

A large proportion of the money expended on the freedmen schools, under the administration of the Rev. T. W. Conway, the late assistant commissioner, we are satisfied was squandered. Mr. Matthew Whilden, formerly chief clerk in the school department—in evidence before us—stated that in September, 1865, Captain Pease, the school superintendent, reported officially that there were forty schools in operation and in a flourishing condition, when, in fact, there were but two.

From the sworn testimony it will be seen that Captain Morse, appointed provost marshal of the bureau by Mr. Conway, made the provost marshal's office a slave pen, arresting freedmen and selling them to planters at five dollars a head, and sharing the proceeds with his special policemen who made the arrests. This officer further collected a large amount of money from freedmen and white persons arrested by him for various offences, and his books only show receipts from this source amounting to $675.10.

The bureau is cultivating a large plantation in this State, for which it pays ten or fifteen thousand dollars a year as rent. We can scarcely imagine the excuse for renting land on account of the United States, when the government, through each Congress, is giving away millions of acres of public lands to corporations.

TEXAS—EACH AGENT AN ABSOLUTE MONARCH.

All the bureau agents in Texas exercise judicial powers in both civil and criminal cases, and in the discharge of these arbitrary and dangerous functions, frequently arrest and imprison respectable citizens upon mere rumor.

Ten of the thirty-five agents in this State are citizen planters. One of them, Col. McConaghe, agent in Thornton county, was formerly a Colonel in the rebel army, and was appointed an agent of the bureau by General Gregory, then assistant commissioner for the State, while still unpardoned.

So far as we saw, or were able to get information in Texas, the freedmen were working well and the crops were promising. The wages paid—all the payments being made in specie—were better than in any other department.

SUMMARY

In pursuing this investigation, which has now extended over four months, we have found extreme difficulty in complying with that portion of our instructions which requires us to report upon the operations of the bureau and its mode of administration. The bureau has no settled mode of administration. There is an entire absence of system or uniformity in its constitution. In one State its officers exercise judicial powers, in an adjoining State all cases are referred to the civil authorities; while in a third State the bureau officers collect the cases and turn them over to the military provost courts to dispose of. In some departments the officers of the bureau have attempted to regulate the rate of wages; one form of contract between employer and employed is prescribed in one State, while in another a different form is adopted. In Louisiana the expenses of the freedmen's schools have been wholly paid by the government; in the other States the schools are partially self-supporting, and in Texas they are entirely so.—In some localities the bureau officers interfere arbitrarily between the planters and the freedmen in favor of the freedmen; in other localities the bureau is used as a means of coercing the freedmen in favor of the planter. The expenditure of the bureau varies as much as its mode of administration. In one State the expenses are over three hundred thousand dollars a year; in another State, with an equal population, the expenses are not more than fifty thousand. In some States the expenses have been met by taxes levied on and collected from the people; in other States the cost is entirely borne by the United States Treasury.

The official report of Colonel Reno, United States army Provost Marshall Genaral of the Bureau of Louisiana, shows a deficeit of upwards of seven thousand dollars in the accounts of the officers who were engaged in the collecting of taxes in New Orleans, which deficit Col. Reno says he is unable to explain in consequence of the loose manner in which the books were kept.

We are of the opinion that at the close of the war, and for some time after the cessation of hostilities, the Freedmen's Bureau did good.—The people of the South, having at first no faith in the negroes working under a free labor system, were desirous of getting rid of them, and during the summer of 1865 judicious bureau and military officers did much toward restoring order and harmony, and inducing the people of the South to resume the cultivation of their plantations by employing the freedmen. Before the close of 1865 there was an entire revolution in the sentiments of the people of the South with regard to negro labor. A feeling of kindness sprang up towards the freedman, resulting, perhaps, mainly from the conviction, that his labor was desirable, profitable and the only labor to be had.

The necessity of the bureau then ceased.—Since then, while it has been beneficial in some localities, it has been productive, in the aggregate, of more harm than good. It has occasioned and will perpetuate discord as long as it exists, though administered by the purest and wisest men of the nation. The freedmen regard its presence as evidence that they would be unsafe without it, and the white people consider it an imputation upon the official action of all their courts and magistrates, as well as upon the private conduct of their citizens. Both races are thus made suspicious and bitter by an agency which, in the present reorganized condition of civil government and society in the Southern States, is powerless to advance the interests of either.

General News.

The author of the celebrated poem entitled "The Conquered Banner," is at last discovered. The author is a young priest, the Rev. Abram S. Ryan, of Knoxville, Tennessee.

A FALLING STAR.—Jenny Lind, who was formerly the idol of the public, who for years gathered flowers and bank-notes on her way, may be said to have assisted at her own funeral, as an artist, in having unfortunately again come before the public long after her voice was no more. She was hissed by a great part of the audience. So says a Paris letter.

The State of Louisiana has granted a charter for the organization of a hospital for disabled soldiers, the benefits of which are not to be denied to the soldiers of any country. James B. Hood is President of the Association, and S. B. Buckner Vice President. Among the directors are G. T. Beauregard, Howell Cobb, Joseph E. Johnston, Wade Hampton, D. H. Hill, Jeff. Thompson, Robert E. Lee, James Longstreet, and W. J. Hardee.

General Robert E. Lee will publish in November a new edition of "Memoirs of the war in the Southern Department of the U. S.," by Col. Henry Lee. It was originally published in 1809, and again in 1828, but copies are very scarce. Gen Lee will add a biography of his father, Col. Lee, and much new and important material. Richardson & Co., 445 Broadway, New York, are the publishers.

In reply to the question "What class of people in the South are the most loyal to the Union?" General Steedman, instead of praising the negro, as the questioner expected, answered very laconically:—"The returned rebel soldier."

A BALE OF COTTON FOR THE PRESIDENT.—The first bale of new cotton received at Macon, on Thursday, has been purchased by citizens and shipped as a present to President Johnson.

Two young men were lost in the Mammoth Cave, Ky., on Wednesday week, and had not been found up to last accounts.

The Natchitoches, La., Times, of July 25, says that the cotton plant is growing luxuriously. On many plantations the bolls are opening. The picking will soon be in operation.

According to the old law of Pennsylvania, any person arresting a horse thief is entitled to a bounty of $20 and mileage, for conveying the prisoner to the jail of the county in which the theft was committed.

The planting cotton in Illinois is thus far a success. Accounts from that State say that the crops are promising. One planter has two hundred acres of cotton under cultivation.

LECTURING.—Writing a quire of bad grammar without ideas, getting the newspapers to pronounce it splendid, and gobbling up all the fifty cent notes in the cites and villages.

The Confederate dead around Appomattox C. H. are being coffined and re-interred. God bless the ladies!

The Danville Times is making strenuous exertions to reduce the high rents in that town. May it be successful.

General Grant has decided against a claim made by the Petersburg Index for pay for papers furnished Gen. Terry.

It is said that Macon, Georgia, is the next place selected by the Radicals, as the scene of a negro riot.

DAGUERREOTYPE LOST.

MRS. THOMAS BRANCH, late of this city, but now of Richmond, about the time she removed from this city, lost a daguerreotype of an aged friend, which she values very highly. It represents an old man, with white hair, with a pair of spectacles in his hand and pointing to a small chest. The case is worn and has been mended.
She authorizes us to offer TWENTY DOLLARS reward for the recovery of said daguerreotype.
The Editors of the Sentinel will pay the reward, to any one who will deliver them the daguerreotype.

It will be seen that we have returns, thus far, from 36 counties,—in which there is a majority against Ratification of 3,438. The official returns from a few of the counties show an immaterial variance, one way or the other, from the vote as published by us.

From the complexion of these returns, it looks very much as if the amended Constitution had been rejected. The vote in the trans-mountain counties, however, will probably determine the result.

REVIVALS.—We are glad to be able to state, that, in the midst of the political and pecuniary pressure upon our people, the people of Wake county, in some sections, are turning their thoughts to spiritual things.

At Macedonia Church, (Methodist) under the pastoral care of Rev. T. G. Whitaker, an interesting meeting has been in progress the past week. Some thirty persons have made a profession of religion.

At a school house near Mr. Henry Porter's, a meeting has been held the past week, by Rev. Mr. Raven, (Methodist) where some 25 persons have professed faith in Christ.

At Mt. Moriah Church, (Baptist,' the Pastor we do not know,) some thirty or forty persons have professed religion. For some eight or ten days an interesting meeting has been in progress there.

CHURCH INTELLIGENCER.—We fear that a good many Episcopalians in this State are not aware that their Diocesan organ has been revived. Rev. Dr. Hubbard, its able editor, is one of the most terse, clear and tasteful writers in the State. The Intelligencer ought to be in every Episcopal family, but its meagre circulation, we judge, obliges its proprietors to circumscribe its limits. Its size should be doubled and the denomination should sustain it handsomely. It is published weekly at Charlotte in this State. Send your subscription to the publisher.

BIBLICAL RECORDER.—Our friend, Huffham, and his excellent paper, deserve a magnificent support from the Baptists of the State. Through the greatest obstacles, and, we judge, with only a tithe of the pecuniary help he ought to have had, he has been giving to the Baptist denomination in this State, since the war closed, the best paper they have ever had. We trust they are rallying to its support.

BALTIMORE EPISCOPAL METHODIST.—We have received several numbers of this excellent church paper, edited by Rev. Dr. Bond and Rev. S. S. Roszell, of Baltimore, with Bishop Doggett and Rev. J. E. Edwards, of Virginia, as corresponding Editors, and Rev. J. Poisal, Publisher. It is a large, well printed sheet, ably edited, and devoted to the promotion and defense of Southern Methodism. Its contributors are among the ablest men of the Church. The Methodists of North Carolina, who desire to be posted in their own Church matters, cannot do a better thing, in the absence of the North Carolina Christian Advocate, than to subscribe for the Baltimore Episcopal Methodist and the Richmond Christian Advocate. Both are good, able, sound, religious Church papers. Those in this City who desire to subscribe to either can see specimen copies at this office. The Senior Editor will take pleasure in forwarding subscriptions.

THE WATCHMAN.—This eminently interesting journal, edited by Rev. Dr. Deems, in New York, we are glad to see, is constantly growing in public favor. This journal occupies a new field, between the secular and religious press of the Republic, and is equal to any journal in the country. Its original contributions and selections are of the first order—the news, both secular and ecclesiastical, is carefully collated, and its editorials bear the impress of the Editor's genius and ability. The well known character of Dr. Deems ought to secure him at least 5,000 subscribers in North Carolina alone.

The able papers entitled "The last ninety days of the war in N. C.," written by one of the most talented and racy female writers in this State, have been completed. They were worth double the subscription price of the Watchman, and we insist upon it that they be issued at once in a neat, cheap volume, for circulation and preservation. The history of that remarkable period should be preserved, and those articles were carefully eliminated of even the semblance of romance, and the facts stated are supported by incontestible evidence. Messrs. J. G. Williams & Co., are the authorized agents of the Watchman in this city.

A LETTER FROM SOUTH CAROLINA.

North Carolina Politics,—Gubernatorial Contest—New Constitution—Western Railroads—Maj. J. M. Blair, Exchange Hotel—Drought in South Carolina—Colleges at Spartansburg—Philadelphia Convention.

MESSRS. EDITORS:—Long a resident of North Carolina, I may perhaps be excused for carefully noting, with deep interest, the tide of events in that old commonwealth. It seems that the Gubernatorial contest, this fall, is to be quite sharp, and perhaps also the election of Lieut. Governor is not to pass without a struggle. It is to be hoped that the people have already settled the question of Lieutenant Governor, by rejecting the new Constitution, lately proposed by the astute Convention. That document contains many new features that I most cordially approve, but yet I should regard its adoption as highly prejudicial to the interests of the State. The 23rd section is a virtual repeal of the existing law for extending by State aid the Western N. C. R. R., so as to break the long slumber of the mountains and valleys of the Western Counties by the shrill notes of the locomotive whistle. With Railroad facilities, the counties West of the Blue Ridge would become the garden spot of North Carolina, but without such advantages, this has been left by the war the poorest country of which we have any acquaintance. What boots it, that its surplus of hay, corn, oats, wheat, rye, Irish potatoes, apples, &c., may be counted by millions of tons or bushels, with no means of reaching a market? To what purpose has Heaven conferred upon that region the finest climate and most enchanting scenery in America, as long as man provides no means of reaching it?

Governor Worth has held the position, which he has so well filled, for so short a time, that he ought to be re-elected without opposition. If, by adopting the new Constitution, the people decide in favor of a Lieutenant Governor, we second the nomination of Gen. R. B. Vance, who, in every qualification, except experience, is the full equal of the Ex-Governor.

I notice, with pleasure, that Maj. J. M. Blair, former proprietor of the Eagle Hotel, Buncombe, N. C., has taken one of the large hotels in your city. He is a prince among landlords. Active, industrious, generous, Maj. Blair has a commendable ambition to excel in anything to which he devotes himself. He will undoubtedly make the "Exchange" one of the very best hotels in America. Travellers wishing first class accommodations, on reasonable terms, will not be disappointed at the Raleigh Exchange.

South Carolina is fearfully afflicted by drought. It extends to every part of the State. With good seasons, the crops would have been short. Free negro labor is a failure in making cotton, even when the freedmen share the profits. But the withering drought upon half cultivated fields will result in a very small crop, not a third of former years. Many planters are so thoroughly convinced, that cotton cannot be profitably made with free negro labor, that they are offering their extra stock and implements for sale, retaining only sufficient to work small farms in grain. Bread must be brought in from other States, or great suffering must be endured by the people next year. It is thought that the Legislature will take steps to supply the people at cost, from some of the Northwestern States. Many fields of corn are as dead as though this were December, instead of dog days.

This town abounds in schools and colleges.—Beside some six private schools, here are three colleges. Waford College grew up into great popularity under the presidency of Rev. Dr. (now Bishop,) Wightman. Its reputation is well sustained under the presidency of Rev. Dr. Shipp, former Professor at Chapel Hill, N. C.—A large increase of students is expected at the opening of the term on the 1st of October.—Here is located Spartanburg Female college. The fall term has just opened, with an experienced faculty, at the head of whom is Rev. A. W. Cummings, D. D., former President of the popular Female college, at Asheville, N. C.

During the war, St. John's college became the private property of ex-Secretary Trenholm & Co. They have generously given it to the Episcopal Church, and in October next it will be re-opened as a Theological Seminary.

The State Institution for the Blind, Deaf and Dumb is located at Cedar Springs, four miles from Spartansburg.

This being a grain and meat producing region, education can here be afforded at very low prices.

Our people are generally in favor of the Philadelphia Convention. A full and very able delegation from South Carolina will be there to co-operate with the conservative Union men of all parties, in an effort to restore the government, and secure justice to every part of the land.

PHILANDER.

SPARTANSBURG, S. C., Aug. 11, 1866.

STOLEN SOUTHERN PROPERTY—WHERE TO LOOK FOR IT.—The following is an extract from a letter from New York, published in the Baltimore Episcopal Methodist of the fourth instant:

"A Southern lady, on a visit in this city, went to worship in one of the up-town churches.—Soon after an elegantly-attired New York lady, of high social standing, entered the same pew and remained during the service; after which the Southern lady called her aside into the vestry room, and in the presence of the rector, with whom she was well acquainted, thus addressed her: "Madam, I do not wish to offend you, but that shawl you are wearing belongs to me." (The shawl was a superb one.) The New Yorker protested, and declared that there must be some mistake. "If," says the Southern lady, "you will examine a certain corner, you will see my initials worked in it, and the rector knows my name very well."—The corner was found as well as the initials.—The Southern lady then remarked, "That ring you have upon your finger is also mine, and if you will take the trouble to examine the interior you will see the same initials engraved in the ring. Similar movements as above described took place, and with similar results.

Turning to her again, the Southern lady said: "Madam, that bracelet you have on is mine also, and by pressing a spring on the inside it will unclasp and show you my portrait." The New York lady did as requested, and there was the lady's portrait. She promptly returned the ring and bracelet, as she was convinced beyond the power to controvert it, that they were the property of this Southern lady, and remarked as she did, "they are yours, and you are welcome to them, but as I wore the shawl to church I must beg the privilege of wearing it home again." The Southern lady acceded, of course, and they exchanged cards. The shawl came back in due time, but the New York lady had probably obtained the articles in such a manner as to render it too unpleasant to divulge.—No more was said about it. Moral: If Southern ladies want to know where their articles of missing jewelry and wardrobe furniture are, let them attend some fashionable, "up-town," New York church, and if the men want to know what has become of all their fine horses, shipped North by army officers and "bummers," let them spend an evening in Central Park."

Atrocious Murder in Philadelphia.

PHILADELPHIA, Pa., Aug. 11, P. M.

An atrocious murder was committed yesterday. A well dressed man visited a house on Race street with a young lady, and after remaining about an hour the man departed, saying the lady was asleep, and he did not wish her disturbed. An hour or two later the proprietor of the house visited the room and found the girl with her head nearly severed from her body, with a sheet tightly tied around her. Subsequently, through a pictnre found in the girl's trunk, the murderer was ascertained to be Newton Champion, Assistant Engineer in the Navy, and was arrested. The woman's name was Mary Carney, and he had attempted to strangle her a few weeks previous.

From New Orleans,---Report of the Grand Jury Upon the Late Riots,---Markets.

NEW ORLEANS, 11th., P. M.

The Grand Jury made report of the testimony, on the late riots. It says, speaking of the Convention, this assumption of power on the prrt of these men, was a flagrant, open, defiant violation of the laws. It was an insolent and lawless attempt to subvert the Government and destroy the Constitution; and under the laws of most countries would have amounted to high treason, and would be made punishable with death.

The Philadelphia Convention.

PHILADELPHIA, Aug. 12.

The great wigwam for the Convention will be completed by Tuesday. It is the largest structure ever built for a political gathering. A large number of delegates have already arrived—among them Reverdy Johnson, Montgomery Blair, Stockton, of N. J., Fernando Wood, Cowan, of Penn., and other distinguished persons.

The Executive Committee have rooms in the Continental Hotel.

There was quite a stir, to-day, over a report in the New York Herald, that Gov. Curtin had secretly called for 2,000 militia for service during the time of the Convention, and that trouble will probably ensue. This is believed to be a canard. There is no reason to suppose the Convention will be disturbed, notwithstanding the mischievous articles of some of the Radical press.

Gen. Dix or Gen. Ashmun, of Mass., will probably preside.

Freedmen's Bureau and Other Matters.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 12.

The Herald's special from this City asserts that Gen. Howard will resign or be removed, in consequence of the developments made by Gens. Steadman and Fullerton, and that Gen. Tillson will be appointed his successor. The statement needs corroboration.

It is said that the property of Gen. Henry A. Wise has been ordered to be restored to him.

Advices here through the Mexican legation say that Juarez was organising a force at Chihuahua to capture the city of Durango.—Carvahal, with 1500, was to take Tampico.—Escrbedo, with 5,000 men, has gone to Monterey and expects to occupy it.

BUCKEYE SULKY PLOW.

Being impressed with the necessity, and importance of economy in farming, I am happy to have it in my power to furnish to farmers at manufacturers prices the BUCKEYE COTTON & CORN CULTIVATOR OR SULKEY PLOW.

It is certainly the greatest improvement of the age in agricultural implements.

It will, with two horses and one hand, cultivate as much land, and do it as well, as four horses and four hands in the usual way; and the plower can either walk or ride at pleasure; which enables old or decripped men, who cannot follow the common plow to execute the work as well as the most robust.

It is manufactured by R. Sinclair & Co., Baltimore, at $70, and is the cheapest plow in use, because of the great saving in hands, teams and provisions. For further information upon the subject, address.

A New Era In Medicine!

☞ Let the Suffering and Diseased read the following.

☞ Let all who have been given up by Doctors, and spoken of as incurable, read the following.

☞ Let all who can believe facts and can have faith in evidence, read the following:

Know all men by these presents, That on this, the Twentieth day of June, in the year of our Lord, One Thousand Eight Hundred and Sixty-Six, personally came Joseph Haydock to me, known as such, and being duly sworn, deposed as follows: That he is the sole general agent for the United States, and dependencies thereof, for preparations or medicines Known as MAGGIEL'S PILLS and SALVE, and that the following certificates are verbatim copies to the best of his knowledge and belief.

JAMES SMEITER,
Notary Public,
Wall Street, New York.

June 1, 1866.

DR. MAGGIEL:—I take my pen to write you of my great relief and that the awful pain in my side has left me at last—thanks to your medicine. Oh, doctor, how thankful I am that I can get some sleep. I can never write it enough. I thank you again and again, and am sure that you are really the friend of all sufferers. I could not help writing to you, and hope you will not take it amiss.

JAMES MYERS,

This is to certify that I was discharged from the army with Chronic Diarrhœa, and have been cured by Dr. Maggiel's Pills.

WILSON HARVEY,
New York, April 7, 1865. 27 Pitt Street.

The following is an interesting case of a man employed in an Iron Foundry, who, in pouring melted iron into a flask that was damp and wet, caused an explosion. The melted iron was thrown around and on him in a perfect shower, and he was burnt dreadfully. The following certificate was given to me by him about eight weeks after the accident,

New York, Jan. 11, 1866.

My name is Jacob Hardy; I am an Iron Founder; I was badly burnt by hot iron in November last; my burns healed, but I had a running sore on my leg that would not heal; I tried Maggiel's Salve, and it cured me in a few weeks. This is all true, and my body can now see me at Jackson's Iron Works, 2nd Avenue.

Extract from Various Letters:

"I had no appetite: Maggiel's Pills gave me a hearty one."

"Your Pills are marvelous."

"I send for another box, and keep them in the house."

"Dr. Maggiel has cured my headache that was chronic."

"My nausea of a morning is now cured."

"Your box of Maggiel's Salve cured me of noises in the head. I rubbed some of your Salve behind my ears and the noise left."

"Send me two boxes; I want one for a poor family."

"I enclose a dollar; your price is twenty-five cents, but the medicine to me is worth a dollar."

AYER'S AGUE CURE,

FOR THE SPEEDY CURE OF

Intermittent Fever, or Fever and Ague, Remittent Fever, Chill Fever, Dumb Ague, Periodical Headache or Bilious Headache, and Bilious Fevers, indeed for the whole class of diseases originating in biliary derangement, caused by the Malaria of miasmatic countries.

FEVER and Ague is not the only consequence of the miasmatic poison. A great variety of disorders arise from its irritation, in malarious districts, among which are Neuralgia, Rheumatism, Gout, Headache, Blindness, Toothache, Earache, Catarrh, Asthma, Palpitation, Painful Affection of the Spleen, Hysterics, Pain in the Bowels, Colic, Paralysis, and Derangement of the Stomach, all of which, when originating in this cause put on the intermittent type, or become periodical. This "CURE" expels the poison from the blood, and thus cures them all alike. It is not only the most effectual remedy ever discovered for this class of complaints, but it is the cheapest and moreover is perfectly safe. No harm can arise from its use, and the patient when cured is left as healthy as if he had never had the disease. Can this be said of any other cure for Chills and Fever? It is true of this, and its importance to those afflicted with the complaint cannot be over estimated. Be sure it is to cure the Fever and Ague, that it may be truthfully said to be a certain remedy. One Dealer complains that it is not a good medicine to sell, because one bottle cures a whole neighborhood.

Prepared by J. C. AYER & Co., Lowell, Mass., and sold by Williams & Haywood, P. F. Pescud, Raleigh, N. C., and Dealers generally.

HILLSBOROUGH MILITARY ACADEMY.

The exercises of this well known institution, founded by the late Col. C. C. Tew, will be resumed on the 1st. day of October next, under the direction of Gen. R. E. COLSTON, a graduate, and for fifteen years, (up to the commencement of the war) a Professor of the Va., Military Institute.

The course of instruction will be such as to make the Academy a great a school of theoretical and applied science—in which languages and literature will also receive a full share of attention. The discipline and instruction will be upon a complete military basis.

Gen'l. Colston's long experience and extensive acquaintance enable him to assure the public, that he will secure the services of Professors of distinguished ability as the wants of the school require them, and he confidently relies upon the liberal patronage of his old friends and companions in arms, throughout N. C. and the whole South.

Applications for admission must be made as early as practicable, to the Superintendent, and accompanied by testimonials of good moral character. Circulars containing full information will be issued in a few days. For these, and all further particulars, apply to GEN R. E. COLSTON,
